

Adnan Amkhan Bayno

Adnan is Head of Mena Chambers and Director of MC Academy for International Legal Studies.

Adnan has extensive experience in international commercial and investment arbitration as arbitrator, counsel and expert. Advised and acted for governments and private entities.

He has taught and supervised postgraduate students at various U.K universities, focusing mainly on public international law, international commercial arbitration, international economic law and international energy policy and law.

Adnan served as Head of Legal Affairs Department of the Energy Charter Secretariat from 2000-2004.

Adnan is passionate about examining the transformative power of ideas, and exploring the potential interaction between neuroscience, computer technology and decision making.