

Robert G. Volterra

Robert has been recognised for many years in the global legal directories as one of the world's top public international law practitioners. He is qualified as a barrister in Canada and as a solicitor-advocate in England and Wales. He advises and represents governments, international organisations and private clients on a wide range of contentious and non-contentious public international law and international dispute resolution issues, including international boundaries, sovereign immunities, Brexit, the application of international law in domestic court systems, the Law of the Sea, WTO and trade law, treaties, international organisations, Business and Human Rights (BHR), transboundary resources, the Laws of War, bilateral investment treaties (BITs) and ICSID, international oil and gas issues, government relations. He regularly acts as co-agent, counsel and advocate before the International Court of Justice and ad hoc international arbitration tribunals, including under the Permanent Court of Arbitration, ICSID, ICC, SCC, LCIA, UNCITRAL, WTO and UNCLOS rules. He regularly sits as an arbitrator in ICSID, UNCITRAL, ICC, SCC and LCIA arbitrations. He is on the UK Attorney General's A-list for public international law practitioners.